Sanna Nyström

Costume Designer

Biography

Sanna comes from a background of advanced couture and has a degree in costume history in which she also holds lectures. During 2013, she was elected as a member of Stockholm's Skräddarmästare Gille. She can make any possible and impossible type of garment, from dresses and corsets to collars and garter belts. Sanna has a substantial knowledge within costume and the fashion history, and is well versed with every aspect and detail of men's, women's and children's clothing from the medieval times to the present day. Sanna loves working with epoch and fantasy projects where she can expand her interest in various textile techniques.
